Hi Alex! I think you and Bill sent me this at the exact same time - yay!

Bill is going to talk with Frank Avvisato this week about it.

I'll schedule a chat once we hear back from Bill. Talk soon!

With warm regards,

Subject: FW: Rally 2020: Call for presentations open

Hi Kat,

Happy 2020 to you!

RALLY 2020 is now accepting presentation proposals. Please see below.

Should we hop on a call next week to discuss whether or not we want to submit something and if so, what that looks like? Seeing as the conference is in Portland this year, (instead of on the east coast like last year), this RALLY might be a good one to attend.

Best,

Alex

Rally 2020 | October 8 – 10 | Portland, OR

Call for Presentations Open

Submit your proposal to join us as faculty at Rally 2020

Alex,

Be a part of the magic at Rally 2020 by serving as faculty for our seminars and workshops. If you have knowledge, advice or experiences you'd like to share as an instructor at Rally, submit a proposal today.

For the second year, we are challenging our presenters to consider incorporating into their sessions two cross-cutting themes that are critical to the future of land conservation: Inclusion and Climate Change. As land trusts, how might we think about how to plan, engage, adapt, mitigate and address these themes?

Without the generous support of our volunteer faculty, Rally would not be the success it is year after year. We thank all of the presenters for generously giving their time to strengthen the work of land trusts across the country. You make the difference!

SUBMIT A PROPOSAL »

All proposals are due February 18, 2020.

Key Dates and Deadlines

Alex, even if you are not a presenter, don't forget to budget now to attend Rally this fall. Rally is the best conservation learning opportunity of the year — please note these key dates so your colleagues and board of directors don't miss out.

- February 18 | Deadline to submit faculty proposal
- April 13 – 17 | Presenters notified about proposal selections
- June 1 | Registration opens
